

SPRING SUITS—M. GUTMAN & CO.

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH FOR YOUR MONEY.

If it rains on Easter Sunday it will rain for seven succeeding Sundays, but we hope it won't rain, for it will seriously interfere with the sale of our Men's, Boys' and Children's Spring Suits.

We never had a finer collection, and we never felt so confident of pleasing everybody as now, for the styles are so varied that all can be satisfied, no matter what cut or pattern you desire. Our window is full of 50c liaster Neckties. Like everything we show, their quality remains unquestioned. It will be a great pleasure to show these new goods, even if you do not care to purchase just now.

TRADES ASSEMBLY.

Short Session of the Labor Body
Held Yesterday Afternoon.

GARMENT WORKERS' COMPLAINT

That Wheeling Jobbers and Retailers Were Selling Non-Union Goods was Investigated and Settled—A New Chairman for the Arbitration Committee—The Hod Carriers Assisted Financially—Other Matters.

Yesterday afternoon a regular bi-monthly meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly was held at the assembly's quarters on Market street. There was a very good attendance of delegates. President Riley occupied the chair and Secretary Saulsbury was at the secretary's desk. The session was an unusually short one, everybody wanting to enjoy the beautiful Easter Sunday weather.

The committee of the assembly that had in hand the investigation of the complaint of the garment workers' union of Pittsburgh, that Wheeling jobbers and retailers were selling garments made by non-union workmen there, made its report. It had been found that non-union garments, as alleged, were being handled here, but those who were doing this promised the committee to cease at once.

Mr. John W. Norrington, the city wharfmaster, who has been the efficient chairman of the assembly's arbitration committee, handed in his resignation, which was accepted by the assembly. President Riley appointed as his successor Mr. Thomas V. Saulsbury, a conservative but earnest labor man, who will make no rash mistakes in conducting investigations of labor troubles.

It was reported to the assembly that the hod-carriers' union was in straits financially, and upon motion the assembly appropriated $35 for assistance.

It having become known to members of the assembly that Rev. Dr. R. H. Rush, of St. Matthew's church, desired to address the laboring people on phases connected with one of the burning topics of the day—capital and labor—the legislative committee was empowered to wait on Dr. Rush and make arrangements for his talk to the laboring people, which will probably be in assembly hall.

The Great "Wang" Coming. "Wang," the great comic opera, comes to the Opera House next Saturday evening, April 20. Probably the first impression produced by Virginia Earl as Malaya in the coming production will be her remarkable facial resemblance to Della Fox, to say nothing of her exact reproduction of the "pocket Venus" stage business. With all this she has a great part of that charm of manner that carries Della through and makes all the matinee girls fall in love with her. Her famous song, "A Shady Nook, a Babbling Brook," is all the rage. Another number that will be loudly recalled will be "Ask of the Man in the Moon," while the "Baby" song, with four pretty midgets tossing dolls, will take the house by storm.

A RAILROADER KILLED.

George Patton, a Baltimore & Ohio Man, Instantly Killed. Saturday evening about 6 o'clock a young man employed as a switchman at the Baltimore & Ohio freight yards in this city was struck by the tender of a switch engine, run over and instantly killed. His name was George Patton, and he was a brother of Benjamin Patton, the Baltimore & Ohio yardmaster. At the time of the accident young Patton was turning a switch for a passing train, and in stepping backward did not notice an approaching yard engine, which ran over him as described. The remains were taken to Mendel's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. Coroner Schulz viewed the remains and rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts.

TWO OF THEM CAUGHT.

Blewitt's Assassins Arrested Saturday by Officer Gardner. Saturday morning two of the men who were implicated in the robbery of and assault on John Blowitt, the collector of the Standard Sewing Machine Company, below McMeekin last Wednesday, were arrested in the Second ward by Police Officer Gardner, on warrants procured in Marshall county by Chief of Police Bennett. After the pair, who gave their names as James Raymond and John Hays, had been recognized by Mr. Blowitt, they were turned over to the Marshall authorities who took them to Moundsville.
